Performance License

The Lord's Prayer Movie LLC ("Licensor") grants you (the "Licensee") a license to perform the documentary motion picture titled "The Lord's Prayer" (the "Picture") according to the following terms (the "License"):

1. License. Licensor grants Licensee the right to undertake one (1) performance of the Picture in front of a live audience on the authorized date/time and location. ("Performance").

2. Advertising. Licensee may use the Picture's name and Licensor-approved artwork for the purpose of promoting the Performance.

3. Non-Commercial License. The License is granted on a non-commercial basis, meaning that Licensee shall not sell tickets to the Performance.

4. Restriction. Licensee shall undertake reasonable efforts to prevent any infringement of the Picture's copyright, e.g., making a no-recording announcement at the Performance, safeguarding access to the Picture, preventing the recording or broadcast of the Performance other than as expressly authorized hereunder.

5. Additional License Terms.

    a. If the venue hosting the Performance does not hold a current blanket license for the public performance of musical works included in the Film (for example, a CCLI or CVLI license), or if you are unsure whether your venue is covered, please contact us at hello@walkingthetext.com before your screening so we can help you determine next steps.

    b. The License is non-exclusive and non-transferable and may only be used by Licensee, provided that if Licensee intends to undertake the Performance at a third party location, the benefits of this License shall apply to such third party location and its owner and operator.

    c. Licensee shall not edit or modify the Picture.

    d. For the avoidance of doubt, the Performance shall not be used in or in connection with any commercial tie-ins, advertisements, third party promotions or in any manner that expresses or implies endorsement of Licensee or any third party, cause, belief, product or service. In the event that Licensor determines that the Performance would be likely to bring the Licensor or any person associated with the Picture into disrepute or tarnish the goodwill or image thereof or for any other reason in its sole discretion, Licensor may terminate this License.

    e. All rights not expressly licensed hereunder are reserved by Licensor.

f. In the event that the individual entering into this License is acting on behalf of an entity and has the authority to do so, such entity shall be considered the Licensee for the purposes of this License.

6. Law and Venue. This License shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Tennessee without regard to its conflict of law provisions. In the event a dispute arises hereunder the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in or covering Williamson County, TN.

7. Complete Document. This License constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and cannot be modified except by an amendment entered into by the parties.
